

Thanks for downloading my Busy Bee's Activities "Beehive Chart". All artwork is protected under the U.S. copyright law and may not be reproduced or redistributed for profit or gain. © 2009 Holly Brooke Jones.

Instructions:

1: Print the "Busy Bee's Activities" chart onto card-stock.
Fits perfectly on a standard 8.5" x 11" paper.

2: Have the printed card-stock laminated or put a clear contact paper over the images for extra protection. Feel free to skip this step if you wish.

3: Cut out beehive & bee's.

4: If you wish to add any glitter or embellishments, do so now.

5: Glue some magnets to the back the beehive & one magnet to each bee.

6: Print or write some activities and/or chores onto a small piece of paper.
Here is a list of some activity ideas. Feel free to add any that would work for your child's age.

- Read a book with mom. •Help mom make cookies. •Clean all the mirrors in the bathrooms. •go tickle dad.
- Count how many times you can find the word "the" in your favorite book. •Practice sight words. •jump 10 times.
- Make pudding pops. •Write a letter to Grandma. •Choose a game to play with mom. •Enjoy a yummy snack.
- Complete a worksheet •Complete a (be specific) craft project. •Learn to tie your shoe. •Cut out your favorite pictures from some junk mail or old magazines. •Make up a story about your favorite animal.

7: Fold the small paper in half (so that your child can't see what he/she is picking) and place behind each magnet.

Be sure to change out activities on a daily basis to fit your needs and to keep your child interested.

8: Set aside a time each day or week for child to complete the activities.

Here are some rules:

- The child can pick any bee that he/she wants to. The child has to complete the chore or activity before moving on to the next bee.
- I usually let my kids pick 6 bee's a day. I usually include something fun, something educational, a chore, & a physical activity.

I hope you and your children enjoy these fun activities together.
